

HALL CONSTRUCTION NETS NEW CONTRACT

Hall Construction Services Ltd has been awarded the contract to build the new Leigh Sports Village Stadium by Greenbank Partnerships Ltd at Pennington Park, near Wigan.

The contract valued at £17.5m comprises a new 10,000 capacity stadium with seating for 7,500 to be used by all the major sporting clubs in the town including Leigh RMI Football Club, Leigh Centurions Rugby League Club and Leigh Harriers Athletic Club and is the next phase in the overall Leigh Sports Village development.

The stadium will also be used for key amateur and schools fixtures as well as for local community events and also includes extensive hospitality and banqueting facilities along with new offices and commercial areas. A new access road with car parking and infrastructure will also be provided.

The project is due to start in Spring 2007 with completion in Autumn 2008.

This is the fifth major stadium contract for Hall Construction following the new 11,000 seater stadium for Shrewsbury Town currently on site and the successful completion of the 25,000 seater Darlington Town FC Stadium and new stands at Rotherham United FC and Cambridge United FC.
